Global balanced fund, flexible

MARKET COMMENTARY

The fund price rose by 3.0% in February, which is equivalent to a gain of 2.8% since the start of the year. During the reporting month, the market responded to Apple's quarterly figures and the additional shares acquired by Berkshire Hathaway by awarding a significant premium. Grenke performed with the usual momentum. Earnings per share increased by 27% compared to the previous year. Novo Nordisk improved the result per share by 11%, Hermès increased sales revenues by 8%. Takkt surpassed the annual targets, while Coca-Cola, Nestlé and Phillips 66 failed to meet expectations. Our CMS subordinated bonds Crédit Agricole, Nordea and Dt. Postbank registered gains, as they benefited from growing inflationary expectations in a positive economic environment, based on their coupon structure. The fund allocation is comprised of 72% stocks, 24% bonds and 4% liquidity.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND - PHILOSOPHY

In the selection of the fund's positions the philosophy of value investing is combined with an "event-driven value" approach. The aim is to reduce fundamental risks in the selection of the fund's positions by focusing on companies with strong business quality. By business quality the management means business models that stand out for their sustainability, the ability to defend an existing competitive advantage and the capacity to generate high free cash flows. The portfolio is diversified through various types of event and different holding periods. Interest paper and bonds can be added to the portfolio.
